

Strigberger Brown Armstrong LLP is a dynamic insurance litigation boutique law firm, with offices in downtown Toronto and Waterloo.

We are a firm of 16 personable lawyers, experienced in insurance litigation and risk management, split across our two offices. Our Waterloo office has 7 lawyers, and 6 staff members.

We offer a full range of legal services to the insurance industry. We are committed to providing efficient, timely, and practical legal services. We are also committed to changing the status quo for provision of legal services, starting with our own composition. Women make up 60% of the firm's lawyers, 78% of its partners, and 100% of its managing partner.

More information can be found on our website: sbalawyers.ca or by contacting any of our lawyers.

Our Waterloo office seeks one committed, friendly and engaged articling student with an interest in litigation, for 2019-2020. Applicants with a demonstrated interest or connection to Southwestern Ontario are particularly encouraged to apply.

Our application deadline is May 4, 2018, at 5pm.

We would ask that applicants submit a cover letter, resume and law school grades to the attention of:
